Thrift—Webb.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]

Kenbridge, Va., June 1.—In the presence of many relatives and friends to-day at 1 o'clock, at Olive Branch Methodist Church, a beautiful marriage was solemnized, when Miss Ella Fletcher, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Webb, became the bride of the Rev. Charles Tinsley Thrift, paster of the church in which the marriage ceremony took place. The ceremony was performed by Dr. James Cannon.

The church was tastily decorated in evergreens and white roses. The wedding marches were rendered by Miss Belle Graham, of North Carollna, assisted by Miss Mary Hunter, of Radford. The matron of honor was Mrs. N. J. Boddie, sister of the bride, of Durham, N. C., the best man being Fred Thrift, of Northumberland, brother of the groom. The ushers were R. G. Webb and J. S. Hajchett, of Kenbridge, and Tom Hardy, of Victoria, and Rev. Mr. Wright, of Norfolk, and the flower girls were lettle

Misses Nanne Sue Crute and Sallie Manson Petty, nieces of the bride. The ring-bearer was Master Austin Seay Bridgforth.

The bride, attired in a gown of white messaline, entered the church upon the arm of her brother, T. W. Webb, wearing a bouquet of roses at her waizt. The matron of honor was attired in a gown of pink messaline, and she carried a large bouquet of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony Rev. and Mrs. Thrift left over the Virginian Rallway for a tour of several weeks in the mountains of Tennessee and Virginia, and will be at home in Kenbridge after June 20, Among the out-of-town guests from a distance were; Mrs. N. J. Boddie, of North Carolina; Rev. Mr. Wright, of North Carolina; Rev. Mr. Wright, of North Carolina; H. L. Commencement at Davidson-Endov [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Davidson, N. C., June 1.—Davidson College to-day finished its seventy-third College to-day finished its seventy-third annual commencement, the most remarkable one in its history. President S. C. Mitchell, of the University of South Carolina, made the address to the graduating class. Fifty-three men received the degrees of bachelor of arts or of science and seven the degree of M. A., a record-breaker for Davidson. Among these graduates were three Richmond men—Palmer Maury Hundley, Leland Long Miller and Emmett Gold Routt, Miller leading the senior class this year with an average of 98.05. An unusual feature of the exercises was the raising of the last $7,500 of the amount needed to secure the $75,000 offered by the General Education Board twenty months ago. This was done amidst the greatest enthusiasm and increases the Davidson endowment to $300,000.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bowling Green, Va., June 1.—George H. Harris Prentice, who recently came to this section from Ohlo, was burned to death at an early hour this morning, when the house in which he was sleeping was completely destroyed.

The fire was first seen by two colored men, who reached the burning building just as it fell in. As they ran to the scene they heard the cries of a man on the inside, and it is certain that it was Mr. Prentice. Parfiles have been searching for the remains all day, but their efforts have as yet been without success.

Mr. Prentice recently purchased the
